The HEINEKEN APGP is a two-year program that offers successful applicants a unique combination of formal and on-the-job leadership training, including mentorship from HEINEKEN's senior management team across Asia Pacific. The selected graduates will also get the chance to rotate assignments every six months, with their first year spent between the various functions within their home Operating Company (OpCo), while their second year will cover assignments in two other HEINEKEN OpCos in Asia Pacific. HEINEKEN operates in more than 20 countries in the region.

"At HEINEKEN Malaysia, people are at the heart of our company and we are strong believers of progress. It is in our DNA to nurture and develop our people to ensure they are continuously growing and delivering success not only for themselves, but also for the Company," said Kuhan Kanagarajan, HEINEKEN Malaysia's Human Resources Director.

Designed to accelerate career development, the HEINEKEN APGP provides opportunities for graduates to gain valuable experiences through the program's cross-functional offerings and explore their true potential by working with one of the world's leading brewers.

HEINEKEN APGP is open to Malaysian graduates from a wide range of backgrounds, including commerce, supply chain, finance, human resources, corporate affairs, legal, and digital, among others.
